

2 – DAY UNDERSTANDING SAFETY HEALTH RELATED LAWS

Introduction

This course provides with latest and updated information on Occupational Safety and Health 1994.

Course Objectives

To acquire latest Amendment law in Malaysia and its minimum application.

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Gain knowledge in latest Amendment OSHA 1994
- Create more awareness among workers
- Why safety and health important to us
- Minimize accident, incident, ill health and dangerous occurrence
- Why must emphasis law at working place

Methodology

Lecture with audio and video visuals aids, role-play & case study, practical session on workplace assessment and theory & practical test, and to be conducted in English and Bahasa.

Who Should Attend?

- Employees, Contractors
- Production Executives, Supervisors, and Technicians

2 – DAY UNDERSTANDING SAFETY HEALTH RELATED LAWS

Course Outline

MODULE 1:

- Introduction
- Why we need Safety and Health
- Definition of Legislation

MODULE 2:

- Role of Legislation
- Function of Legislation
- Limitation of Legislation

MODULE 3:

- Comparison between OSHA 1994 and FMA 1967

MODULE 4:

- OSHA 1994 Sections

MODULE 5:

- Employer responsibilities
- Employee responsibilities

MODULE 6:

- Safe working environment
- Composition of safe working environment

MODULE 7:

- Why we must do workplace inspection
- Why we must do workplace incident investigation.
- Why Safety and Health Committee is important

MODULE 8:

- Safety and Health performance
- Active
- Reactive
- Q and A

